

Cap. Gio. Maria, of Verona.

Cap. Mancino.

ENGINEERS.

Giouanni Mormori, killed.

Cav. Girolamo Maggio, of Anghiari, enslaved [escaped, retaken and strangled, March 27, 1572.]

TURKISH CAPTAINS IN FAMAGUSTA.

Mustafa, General.

Sanjaq of Antipo, killed.

Pasha of Aleppo.

Suleiman bey, killed.

Pasha of Anatolia, killed.

Three Sanjaqs of Arabia, one killed.

Muzaffer, Pasha of Nicosia.

Mustafa bey, General of Adventurers, killed.

Pasha of Caramania.

Agha of the Janissaries.

The Fergat, lord of Malatia, killed.

Janpulad bey.

Sanjaq of Tripoli.

The Framburaro of Divrigi, killed.

Beylerbey of Greece.

Pasha of Sivas and Marash.

Ferca Framburaro.

FINIS.

Those who are curious to see how the same episode is set forth for Turks by a Turk can read this short extract which I have translated from Qibris Tarikhi (Levqosha, 1312) Nicosia, 1895, pp. 89—91.

A. H. 978. Here again the Ottoman troops were set in array, a mine was fired, and fresh cannon kept up the attack, until on the second day of the siege a part of the Fort was brought to the ground, and after a bloody fight maintained